

ProMIS NEUROSCIENCES, INC.

CHARTER OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

I. PURPOSE

The Board of Directors of ProMIS NEUROSCIENCES, INC. (the “Company”) is responsible for the general supervision of the management of the business. The Board of Directors will discharge its responsibilities directly and through its committees, currently consisting of the Audit Committee, the Compensation Committee and the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee. The Board of Directors shall meet regularly to review the business operations, corporate governance and financial results of the Company.

II. COMPOSITION

The Board of Directors shall be constituted at all times of a majority of independent directors in accordance with Multilateral Instrument 58-201. A director is considered to be “independent” if he or she has no direct or indirect material relationship which could in the view of the Board of Directors reasonably interfere with the exercise of a director’s independent judgment. Notwithstanding the foregoing, a director shall be considered to have a material relationship with the Company (and therefore shall be considered a “dependent” director) if he or she falls in one of the categories listed in Schedule “A” attached hereto.

III. RESPONSIBILITIES

The Board of Directors' mandate is the stewardship of the Company and its responsibilities include, without limitation to its general mandate, the following specific responsibilities:

- The assignment to the various committees of directors the general responsibility for developing the Company’s approach to: (i) corporate governance and nomination of directors related issues; (ii) financial reporting and internal controls; and (iii) issues relating to compensation of officers and employees.
- With the assistance of the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee:
 - Reviewing the composition of the Board of Directors and ensuring it respects its independence criteria.
 - The assessment, at least annually, of the effectiveness of the Board of Directors as a whole, the committees of the Board of Directors and the contribution of individual directors, including, consideration of the appropriate size of the Board of Directors.
 - Ensuring that an appropriate review selection process for new nominees to the Board of Directors is in place.
 - Ensuring that an appropriate orientation and education program for new members of the Board of Directors is in place.

- Approving disclosure and securities compliance policies, including communications policies of the Company.
- With the assistance of the Audit Committee:
 - Reviewing and monitoring the integrity of the Company's internal controls and management information systems.
 - Reviewing and monitoring the Company's ethical behaviour and compliance with laws and regulations, audit and accounting principles and the Company's own governing documents.
 - Identification of the principal risks of the Company's business and ensuring that appropriate systems are in place to manage these risks.
 - Reviewing and approving significant operational and financial matters and the provision of direction to management on these matters.
- With the assistance of the Compensation Committee and the President and Chief Executive Officer, the approval of the compensation of the senior management team.
- With the assistance of the Compensation Committee, the review and approval of corporate objectives and goals applicable to the Company's senior management.
- The selection, appointment, monitoring evaluation and, if necessary, the replacement of the senior management to ensure management succession.
- The adoption of a strategic planning process, approval at least annually of a strategic plan that takes into account business opportunities and business risks identified by the Board and/or the Audit Committee and monitoring performance against such plans.
- Reviewing with senior management major corporate decisions which require Board approval and approving such decisions as they arise. This includes the review and pre-approval of all actions, plans and decisions requiring Board approval as set out in the Company's policies and procedures, including but not limited to business plans, operating budgets and revisions thereto, financings, major purchases and leases of facilities and equipment.
- Performing such other functions as prescribed by law or assigned to the Board of Directors in the Company's corporate documents and by-laws.
- Meetings of the Board of Directors shall also include regular meetings of the independent members of the Board without management being present.

- The Board will communicate its expectations of management through various established practices including but not limited to the review and approval of the Company's annual business plan and operating budget, individual senior management objectives, and corporate policies. The Board further expects that management will comply with all applicable laws and regulations.

IV. Other

On a yearly basis, the Board will review its Charter and where appropriate will make changes.
